Welcome!

Welcome to the Moss Bury News. In this week's edition, we will be finding out about the learning happening in Maple and Cedar class, the Maths championship and who took home Moss Bury's Book in a Bag.

What we've been up to...

Maple Class had fun doing the mossy mile. The adults in the class couldn't believe how energetic children in Maple could be as most of the children did more than ten laps on the field.

In RE, the children learnt about how the Golden Rule had been written by the different faith communities such as Christianity, Sikhs, Hindus, Islam etc and came to a conclusion that the Golden Rule had the same meaning in the different religions but had just been worded differently. They designed a poster to encourage others to follow the Golden Rule in order to make the world a better place.

Our proudest moment this week was finishing our narrative on our text 'Door'. The children wrote the beginning, middle and ending of the story in details using their learning commitments to make their writing interesting. They designed a front cover and wrote a blurb for their story. They were so proud to be authors of their very own books.

In Cedar class, we have been very busy throughout the month of May. We celebrated the King's coronation on Friday 5th May with a tea party in class. We also watched videos of Queen Elizabeth's coronation, so we understood the process of a coronation. We also had some snacks!

In art, we looked at the artist named Hokusai. We looked at the block printing image called 'The big wave'. We investigated the history of block printing and how we could perform the skill ourselves. We block printed a mountain onto our sketched-out wave. We then painting our wave using different tones of blue. We think they look absolutely amazing! What do you think?

We are thrilled to announce that both our teams have advanced to the finals of the Maths Championship after making it through the semi-finals this week. Only the top 15 out of 40 teams qualified for the final, and our teams took 5th and 7th place. We are incredibly proud of them.

Moss Bury's Book in a Bag

Last Friday, one child from every class took their book in a bag home to read. They enjoyed a hot chocolate and a great book. If you have the book this week and would like your photograph in the Moss Bury News, please email a photograph to jesscot-ton@mossbury.herts.sch.uk.
